

Speak Up: It takes real courage for a child to disclose abuse. Be equally strong. If you even suspect a child is being neglected, or abused physically/sexually, do the right thing. Make a report.

Report Child Abuse by reaching out to your local law enforcement agency (9-1-1) or the Department of Children and Family Services at (800) 540-4000.

WHAT WE DO

Our multidisciplinary team works together with the goal of minimizing additional trauma to a child. The CAC does this by conducting a forensic interview instead of having each agency conduct multiple interviews of a child. A forensic interview is a recorded conversation by a trained interviewer with a child about their traumatic experience, which is used to aid a criminal investigation against an alleged perpetrator and to keep children safe. The CAC provides a pathway to recovery for children affected by abuse; linking families to mental health services, victim rights and compensation representatives.

A TEAM EFFORT

The CAC provides a safe space for a child's voice to be heard.

The CAC cultivates a comfortable, calming, inviting environment, and our forensic interviewers reduce further trauma by ensuring a process that empowers victims to speak freely and provide the multidisciplinary team with accurate and powerful evidence to keep children safe and hold offenders accountable.
